The family sheets for Walter Owen and his descendants were made using information received from Lois Keys, an Owen descendant. She had a genelagist in Virginia do the research. I have found may of these marriages in books on Virginia in our local library. I believe the information to be fairly accurate.

The King family sheets were made using King information from the same source.

I am also including some information I acquired in Wayne County, Illinois which was done by a Mrs. Brannon. This is very interesting reading but I have had some trouble agreeing with all the data when matching to the other information from Mrs. Keys.
Who knows what is right, but I chose to use the sheets from Mrs. Keys to make my family sheets and simply include the other information for future reference and possible interest to others.

Dear William,

After years of searching, I have a lead on our family. I entered Enoch Beach in the message board of AOL and the next day I received a message that he was the son of Justice Beach of Burke Co., N.C. Justice had earlier been in Mecklenberg in the 1780's and 1790's. He was born around 1740-1750 and died in 1804 in Burke Co., N.C. Justice was married to Susannah Robinson Bradshaw and they had a number of children besides Enoch and there was a daughter that married John King. I have contacted two people via E-Mail that are suppose to send me more information. My guess is that we will locate the Kings in Burke County also. I have had shingles, am still on pain medicine; therefore I am not driving. I can hardly wait until I can get somewhere to get census records and see if I can locate the Kings. Is there any chance that you could get to a library to check records?

Dear Lois,

I am enclosing copies of the material left by Norman Heidinger.

I have some other news for you. I have located an estate in White Co. Ill of a John King. Susanna King and Enoch Beach of White Co. were administraters, The John signed a note on May 20, 1818, John had 5 children according to the estate record, but they were not named. (Estate dated 16 Nov. 1818)

Do you have a copy of "The History of Wayne & Clay Counties"? p. 220 says that Enoch Beach came from S.C. and located in section 30 as early as 1817 and with him came King, his brother-in-law, Pritchet, and his nephew Abraham Beach. Page 224 says "A Mr King's, brother in-law to Beach, and grandfather to Mr. Clay King, is thought to have been the first death in Massillon Twp." It seems that the history book may be off a few years.

According to the 1860 census
Enoch was b. 1802 in N.C
Candace b 1809 in N.C.
Mahalia b 1814 in Ky
Eliza b. 1816 in Ill
Leander b. 1818 in Ill.

I found no indication that John King owned land in White Co. He was buying a lot in Carmi. I did not learn if the sale was completed and if it was sold. John had farm animals and considerable other items. In fact for that time and location, it seemed to me that he was well off. but no land.

You mentioned that James Owen wrote information about the family in a book. Could you make a photo copy of this information for me?

I think the John King in White Co. is ours. If you agree, do you want copies?

Dorris -

February 5, 1988

Dear Lois,

Thank you for your letter. It agrees with the material that I found in the Jesse Crews papers. I wonder if you were the source of that material. I am sending a copy of it to you. Was this the material that James Owens had written in a book?

There was also some information about the Owen family in Jessie's papers. It says that Daniel Owen b. 1806 or 1807 married Mahala b. 1812 or 1813.

I have a copy of Norman Heidinger's papers that state that John King from N.C. died in 1819, his wife was Susan Beach, who died in 1823, and that their children were Candas Owen (nee) King, Enoch King, Mahala Owen (nee) King, Eliza King, and Leander King. Leander was b.17 Mar. 1818 and died 11 Oct 1854.

From all of this I would assume that Mahalia King married Daniel Owen. This ties in with Daniel b. and Nathan Owen being the administrators of the estate of Enoch King. I have little primary proof, but what I do have, seems to support the above information.

Page 220 of the Wayne Co. history book says that Enoch Beach is considered to be the first settler in Massillon Twp. . with him came King, his brother-in-law who soon died. Page 224 says that a Mr. King, brother-in-law to Beach and grandfather to Mr. Clay King is thought to have been the first death in Massillon Twp.

Clay King was the son of Leander King.

From all of this it appears that Susan or Susanna Beach King was the sister of Enoch Beach.

Somewhere I think that there must be some Bible records or something, but so far, I have not found them. I am wondering how much of the above came from James Owen's book.

I hope that some of the above is new information to you. I will greatly appreciate any sources or further information that you can give me.

Sincerely,

Dorris Lagow

INSCRIBED WATCH

Q. My gr-grandfather's keywind watch has inscribed on the inside in fancy letters: "Thos. Cooper King, Towerhill, London, 120." From studying a book on antiques, I judge the watch to have been made between 1756 and 1784 and it has a hallmark that should give the exact date. Is Towerhill a part of London?

I am wondering if Thomas was the grandfather of Candace King, born 1809 in South Carolina, a daughter of John and Susan King who later moved to Kentucky. She had an older brother born in North Carolina in 1802. A sister was born in Kentucky in 1812. Candace married James Owen in 1824. He was in Wayne Co., Ill., in 1819. They came to Woodford Co., Ill. in 1835. We are up against a stone wall with the Kings — any suggestions? L.K., Metamora, Ill.

A. The street known as Tower Hill is close to the Tower of London. Did you ever consider Thomas King might have been a watchmaker? If a watch were inscribed by the maker to the buyer it would seem a little unusual to have the buyer's residence shown, whereas a craftsman would have included his own address.

Today Tower Hill is not an especially residential area and in the 18th Century especially that area around the Tower and St. Paul's, known as the City, would have been a prime area for businesses and craftsmen. When you establish the year the watch was made, you could try to find someone to search London gazetteers for that period.

As Candace was only 15 when she married it seems unlikely she would have been living in Illinois without her parents (John and Susan King of Kentucky). One wonders if she was someone James knew when he lived in Barren County, Ky., and sent for later. A pity John King is such a common name; there are 10 of them in the 1820 Census of Kentucky, one in Barren County.

You should definitely try to locate John King in Kentucky, then through a first purchase of land you might be able to trace him back to North Carolina or South Carolina. Check the 1810 Census of Kentucky too.

Dear William Baker:

I was very glad to hear from another person that is researching the King family. I think that you and I may have much of the same material. You may have more on your line and I may have more on mine. I am busy right now finishing a booklet that I am doing on one of my lines and I do not want to get my King material out. I am determined that for once I am going to finish something. It is too easy for me to go off in another direction and forget where I was when I come back. It won't be too long. I can give you some information that will give you something to go on for the time being.
John King married Susan or Susannah Beach. She was the sister of Enoch Beach. They had a sister (I think that her name was Janet) that married John Prichard or Prichart. They also came to Wayne Co. I found John King's estate record in White Co., IL. I also found land records that Enoch Beach was in Christian Co., KY before he came to IL. Enoch had a son, Justus. I found a Justus Beach in the early census records of N.C. , but I could not connect him. John King did not have any land in White Co., but he had considerable household good. He was arranging to buy a lot in Carmi in White Co., when he died. I wondered if he either was a professional man or had a trade. Enoch was not a poor man. He was in the state legislature.

Do you have a computer program on an IBM compatible computer? Are you on line?
My on line address is Dorris L1@aol.com

I have some material on the King family on my computer, but I have not checked with my original material for typos and mistakes. The easiest way would be to send you a disk if we can work it out.

Sincerely,
Dorris Lagow

IF THIS IS TRUE THEY MUST HAVE SEPERATED
BETWEEN 1850 & 1860 SINCE
HE WAS WITH ISABELLA
IN 1860 ???

I NOW BELIEVE SEPERATION

1840 CENSUS HAS A FEMALE
BORN BETWEEN 1820 & 1825.
I THINK IT POSSIBLE PREVIOUS
JOSEPH WAS MARRIED
TO ELIZABETH - HAD A dau.
AND HIS WIFE DIED BEFORE
1831. THE dau WOULD BE MARRIED BY 1850.

I HAVE BEEN UNABLE TO FIND
ELIZABETH IN 1860 BUT IN 1870
SHE IS WITH dau SARAH IN

David Marshall Owen, Sheriff of Woodford Co., occupies an honorable position among its native born citizens and his career, both in public service and in private life, justifies the high opinion of his merit that the people held among whom his entire life has been passed,and their confidence in his singular fitness for the responsible office which he so ably fills. Our subject was born in Cazenovia Township, March 10, 1843, a son of James Owen, one of the earlies settlers of Woodford County, a pioneer of Cazenovia Township, of which he is still an honored resident. He was a Virginian by birth, born in Halifax County Jan. 1, 1801. His father Walter Owen, was born in the same county, and his grandfather, David Owen was likewise a native of Virginia and was there reared and married. In the year 1815 he emigrated from the home of his birth to the state of Kentucky and made his home in Barren County with his children till his death in 1818. The grandfather (Walter) of our subject (David) was reared and married in Virginia and removed from there to Kentucky about 1815, going there with his family with a team. After living in Barren county, that state, nearly three years, he came to Illinois and became an early pioneer to Wayne County. At that time the country was very wild giving scarcely any sign of civilization, and deer, wolves, panthers and wild cats were plentiful. He entered a tract of land from the government, the greater part of it being timber, and building a rude log house on the place for a dwelling, he commenced the hard task of clearing a farm. The nearest market was at Carmi, twenty miles distant on the Little Wabash River, and the approach to the town being over rough, and sometimes almost impassable roads, and the nearst mill was also at that point. Mr. Owen improved the greater part of his land, and resided there many years. Finally, he and his wife removed to Marshall County and there spent their last days with their son Nathan.

The maiden name of the grandmother was Elizabeth Martin. Six of the children born to her and her husband grew to maturity-Nathan, Joseph, Elizabeth, James, Daniel, Celia A. The father of our subject was about sixteen years old when his parents removed to the state of Kentucky, and he resided with them till their removal to Illinois, and still continued with them during their residencein Wayne County. As related before, wild game was then plentiful in Wayne County, and he soon became an expert hunter, and killed many a bear, deer, or other wild game, and was this enabledto add many a delicious feast to the humble pioneer fare of the early settlers. He was a youth of intense religious feeling, and early united with the United Baptist Church, and while in Wayne County preached very acceptably for the members of that denomination. In 1835 he came to that part of Tazewell County now in Woodford County, and entered a tract of wild prairie land on section 19 Cazenovia Township, on which he has since dwelt for fifty four years. He at once built the house in which he has since lived, building it of round logs, which he afterwards hewed, and has since weather boarded and ceiled. For some years his wife used to cook all the meals by the fire in the open fireplace, and she spun and wove all the cloth used in the family. Mr. Owen is distinguished as being the oldest settler residing in Cazenovia Township, and one of the oldest in the county. He is now in his eighty ninth year, and not withstanding his advanced age, enjoys a fair degree of health, and retains his mind and memory to a remarkable degree. He has not only improved a good farm, but has been an instrument in aiding the development of the agricultural resources of the county. He came here several years before its organization, and has witnessed almost its entire growth from a wilderness to a good state of cultivation. there were no railways in the early days of the settlement of this part of the country, and means of communication with the outside world were meagre and slow. The wild prairies were scarcely inhabited, and nearly all the land was in the hands of the government, and for sale at $1.25 per acre. The settlements in the county were confined to the timber and along the streams, as the first settlers did not realize the value of the rich virgin prairies as farming lands.

Soon after coming to the county Mr. Owen joined the Christian Church, and became one of its most influential members, and was a local preacher in the church for many years. To him, Parker Morse, Sr., and Thomas Jones belongs the honor of having organized the first school district in the State of Illinois, and drawing the first funds from the treasury for the first free school taught in the state. Mr. Owen was married, December 24, 1824 to Miss Candace King, a native of Kentucky, and a daughter of John and Susan King. She died April 12, 186~~9~~8?. Five of the children born to the parents of our subject, ARE NOW LIVING viz; Thomas, John, David M., J. Madison, and Mary J.

David Owen, of whom these lines are written, received his early education in the pioneer schools of his native county, and was further advanced by the attendance at the college at Eureka, where he pursued an excellent course of study. At the early age of fifteen he commenced to teach school, and was thus engaged for eight winter terms and three summer terms, and when not employed in teaching, he gave his attention to farming. In 1866 he bought eighty acres of timber land near his fathers farm, but never located on it, however, but continued to reside on the old homestead where he had been born and bred, and which was under his management. He devoted his spare time to clearing his land and improving a farm, which he afterwards sold at a good profit. After his election to the important post of Sheriff of Woodford County, he left his old home and removed to Metamora with his family for greater convenience in the transaction of business.

After his election to the important posto of Sheriff of Woodford County, he left his old home and removed to Metamora with his family for greater convenience in the transaction of business.

January 26, 1870 Mr. Owen took unto himself a wife in the person of Miss Susan King, and one child, Myrtle has blessed their happy wedded life. Mrs. Owen was born in Marshall County, Illinois , and is a daughter of Enoch and Celia (Owen) King.

Our subject is well educated and well informed, possessing much natural force of character, physical and moral courage, and is fully equal to the weighty responsibilites devolving on him in his present position. While residing in his native township, he bore an honorable part in the management of its public affairs, serving with ability as township assessor and as school director. He is a Democrat in his political sentiments, firmly believing the policy of that party the right one to be persued in the government of the country. Religiously he and his amiable wife are estimable members of the Christian Chruch, true disciples of the faith.

3. 1833 being the date of his birth. He was reared amid the pioneer scenes that obtained in this part of the country then, and has a distinct recollection of the wild aspect of the country in those days before civilization had made much progress in this region. In his youthful days one of his chief pleasures used to be to hunt the deer, wild turkeys and other game that roamed at will over the broad prairies, or sought shelter in the woody coverts along the streams. He remained at home with his parents till the time of his marriage, when he moved on to a farm belonging to his father in Worth Township two miles from the old homestead, and there the first three years of his wedded life were spent. In about 1859 he settled on the place he now owns and occupies on section 5, Roanoke Township. He inherited industrious habits, keen foresight and other notable traits of character from his parents and has met with more than ordinary success in life. He is the proprietor of 1490 acres of land in Roanoke and Linn townships, besides tracts of land in Kansas and Nebraska, inheriting considerable real estate from his father. Our subject has not gained his wealth by being penurious, as he is very liberal, devoting much money to charitable objects, and giving material aid to every enterprise for the benefit of his township or county, while his children have had every advantage afforded by a good education in the public schools.

Mr. Kennel was married April 8, 1856 to Miss Annie Schertz, and to them six children were born, five of whom are now living—Mary, John, Peter, Katie, Joseph. Mary is the wife of Christian Eigstine, of Linn Township, and is the mother of six children—Susie Anna, Mary, Katie, Lizzie, Johnie, Peter. John married Sarah Bachman, and the other children are living with their parents. Mrs. Kennel was born in France, about 1837, but when she was an infant her parents, Peter and Magdalena Schertz, brought her to the United States. They settled in Worth Township, where her father bought a tract of timber land, and improved a good farm, on which he and his wife spent their remaining years.

Mr. Kennel is classed among our best citizens, and his course in life has reflected credit on his native county, as he has always been true to himself and to others in all the relations of life as son, husband, father, neighbor, friend. He and his wife are members of the Mennonite Church, and are worthy disciples of the faith. In politics, Mr. Kennel is a decided Republican.

JOHN KELLOGG, a native of Vermont, is a good specimen of the sons of New England who have actively aided in the development of Woodford County as a great agricultural center. He is spending his declining years in his pleasant home in Metamora, where he is still engaged in tilling the soil. His fine farm, lying partly in this township and the remainder in Cazenovia and Roanoke townships, shows in the abundant harvests it yields and in its neatly appointed buildings, every evidence of assiduous cultivation and careful improvement.

Mr. Kellogg was born in the town of Stowe, Lamoille Co., Vt., Nov. 20, 1816. His father, Warner Kellogg, was likewise a Vermonter by birth, a native of the town of Paulet. His father, Aaron Kellogg came from England to this country with two brothers when he was a young man, and settled in Vermont. Some years after his marriage he became a pioneer of Stowe, and there spent his last years. He bought a tract of heavily timbered land, and before his death had developed a part of it into a good farm. The father of our subject was five years old when his parents settled in Stowe, and he there grew to man's estate. He inherited his father's land, and was actively engaged in its improvement for many years. In 1853 he sold his property in Vermont, having decided to try life in the marvelous agricultural regions of the West, and coming to Illinois he arrived in Clinton, De Witt County, the 1st of September. He explored the country around there, but not being quite satisfied with it, later in the fall came to this county, and five or six weeks after his arrival in Metamora his life was brought to a sudden close, and thus a citizen was lost to this community who might have been of great use in its upbuilding. The mother of our subject, whose maiden name was Janet Gregg, a native of Vermont, born in Waterbury, of which her parents, natives of Connecticut, were pioneers, died in Stowe, Vt., in 1851. To her and her husband were born twelve children, eleven of whom lived to maturity.

John Kellogg, the subject of this biography, was bred amid the pretty hill scenes of his native State, and fortified by strong principles inherited from his worthy parents, he started out into the world to make life's journey on his own account in 1837. He went to Ohio by the way of Lake Champlain and Erie Canal to Buffalo, thence by Lake Erie to Cleveland, from there by canal to Columbus, whence he took a team to Champaign County. He worked on a farm there until 1843, when he returned to Vermont, and engaged in farming on his own account until 1853. He then sold all his possessions in the Green Mountain State, and in the month of March started on a second journey westward. He stopped in Champaign County, Ohio, until the following February, and in that month came to Metamora and settled on the farm that is still in his possession. There were but few improvemets here then, and it has been Mr. Kellogg's good fortune to witness much of the development of this part of the county, and not only that, but to aid in its upbuilding himself. His homestead of eighty acres is all well improved, and he has besides eighty acres of fine farming land near by in Cazenovia Township, and forty acres in Roanoke Township, all under excellent cultivation.

Mr. Kellogg has been twice married. The first time in Champaign County, Ohio, in 1837, to Miss Laura Darling, a native of Woodstock, Windsor Co., Vt., and a daughter of Joseph and Nellie

Twenty Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. He maketh me lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me besides the still waters. He restores my soul, he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me, thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

DAN SPARKS IS DEAD

A Dependable and Prominent Citizen of Erie Passes Away

Dan Sparks, for many years one of Erie's prominent and dependable citizens, passed away at his home in this city on Tuesday, December 22, 1936, after a short illness. Death was due to heart trouble and asthma. Dan Sparks was always active in his city and was always a booster. He had many friends and these friends will mourn his passing.

The deceased was 74 years, 10 months and 12 days of age, having been born on February 12, 1862, at Peoria, Illinois. He came to Kansas many years ago, and moved with his family to Erie 23 years ago from Elsmore, and had resided here since that time.

He was married on December 2, 1868, to Louanna Watson, at Carthage, Mo. Mrs. Sparks preceded her husband in death in 1933. Surviving him are three sons, Floyd and Ralph of Erie, and Homer, of Rexburg, Ida., one daughter, Mrs. Leola Woodward of Chanute; five grandchildren, two sisters, Miss Dosia Sparks of Erie, and Mrs. Estella Burke of Pittsburg, as well as many other relatives and friends.

Burial will be made in the family lot in East Hill Cemetery, but the funeral arrangements are being held up pending the arrival of the son, Homer Sparks, from Idaho, and they will probably be held this Saturday, at the Federated Church, of which Mr. Sparks was a member.

Dan Sparks, for many years one of Erie's prominent and dependable citizens, passed away at his home in this city on Tuesday, December 22, 1936, after a short illness. Death was due to heart trouble and asthma. Dan Sparks was always active in community affairs and took a great amount of pride in his city and was always a booster. THE OWEN FAMILY

Revised August 1958 by Marjorie Dallas Ralls Brannon

In 1587 Sir Walter Raleigh sent 150 men and women to Roanoke Colony, Virginia. Among these men was John White Owen. Apparently this English ancestor of ours was in the service of Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth I, as he did not remain in Virginia but returned to England and was killed in the great battle between the Spanish Armada and the English Fleet.

Twenty years later, May 1607, Walter Owen, son of John White Owen, arrived, with other English settlers, at the mouth of Chesapeake Bay. They landed on a low marshy peninsula, 35 miles above the mouth of the James River. A fort was built and cannons were mounted to protect the colony, not only from the Indians, but also from the Spaniards, who were vital enemies to all Englishmen. Poor food, contaminated water and the hot climate killed half these settlers before Fall. By Spring 1610, only 60 of the original 500 settlers were alive. They started to leave Jamestown, but as they sailed down the James River, three well-stocked vessels in the command of Lord Delaware arrived and Jamestown was reoccupied. In 1611 Walter Owen was given a plot of land by the Governor of Virginia, Sir Thomas Dale, and this was the beginning of the Owen plantation along the James River. Walter Owen cultivated tobacco on his plantation.

Walter Owen's wife died sometime before 1619. It may be presumed she did not live through the first Autumn of 1607 as there is no record of any children by this union. In 1619 a shipload of maidens were sent from England to wed the lonely bachelors in Virginia. Walter Owen came from his plantation and chose as his wife Elizabeth Bland, a maiden "young, handsome and chaste." This same year the first slaves were brought to Jamestown by a Dutch vessel. In Virginia the soil, climate and leading occupation of raising tobacco on vast plantations caused slavery to be favorable.

Revised By Marjorie Dallas Ralls Brannon

By 1624 four sons had been born to Walter and Elizabeth Bland Owen. That year Walter Owen lost his young wife when the Indians killed and scalped 400 settlers scores of miles up and down the James River. The colored Mammy who held Walter Owen's infant son was also killed in the attack and although Walter Owen and other settlers took terrible revenge and pursued the Indians deep into the forests, the baby was not found. 1632 the eldest son, George Bland Owen, was sent by his Father to England for his education. It is presumed that young George Bland Owen was educated in the Court of Charles I as he became one of the King's Cavaliers and did not return to Virginia until about 1650, after Cromwell and the English Puritans had beheaded Charles I.

George Bland Owen married the daughter of a Dutch Trader, her name lost to time, and she died in childbirth, but his son, William Berkeley Owen (named after the Governor of Virginia) lived.

In 1676, George Bland Owen was killed near Jamestown when, with Governor Berkeley and a collection of soldiers, he attempted to stop Bacon's Rebellion. Bacon was victorious and burned Jamestown. Governor Berkeley was called back to England by Charles II and William Berkeley Owen lived on his Grandfather Walter Owen's plantation. He was educated by a private tutor.

In 1693, by his third wife, a son, John Owen was born to William Berkeley Owen. John Owen was educated in the new College of William and Mary, in the new Capitol, Williamsburg. John Owen became a lawyer and possibly studied at Harvard also for he married a Puritan maiden in Boston. His Father, George Bland Owen, must have turned over in his grave when this marriage occurred, for George Bland Owen had detested the Puritans and had died fighting against them. But the old order changes and gives way to the new, and John Owen was the new generation and in love with his Puritan wife. They returned to the Owen plantation in Virginia and attended the Governor's Reception at Williamsburg and John Owen became a member of the House of Burgesses in Virginia. The Puritan wife could not resist the silks, satins and velvets from London and attired like the grand lady that she was, she rode beside her husband in the great coach, which was decorated with the Owen's Coat of Arms and drawn by fine horses. Before them rode uniformed negro servants and behind them came others, all proud to belong to such a master.

The original house built by Walter Owen was made of logs, notched so that the ends would fit together. The spaces between the logs were filled or chinked with mud to keep out the rain. The roof was made of clapboard split out of logs. A chimney, placed at one end of the cabin, on the outside was made of sticks and mud. The floor was the bare earth.

By 1700 the house on the Owen plantation was spacious with large halls, many windows and large verandas. They danced to the stately movements of the Virginia Reel and the "square" and "round" dances. Fox-hunting was a great sport on the plantation. Early in the morning, as the last stars faded, men and women gathered on horseback from all the plantations to the musical call of the conch shells and horn. They raced at breakneck speed when the hounds were on the trail. John Owen kept open house and treated all guests in a hearty way. There was excellent food on bountiful tables, good beds, good books in the Library. David Owen was born on this Virginia Plantation in 1741 (died 1841). In 1754 John Owen was killed at Fort Necessity in a skirmish with the French, who were attempting to possess the land around the headwaters of the Ohio River. John Owen with other Virginia planter, had received from the Ohio Company and the King of England 500,000 acres near the headwater of the Ohio.

Revised by Marjorie Dallas Ralls Brannon

David Owen married Elizabeth Dance and their descendants were John (1762-1852), Walter 1764, James 1766 (called Spider-legged Jimmie), William 1770, Richard 1773, Joseph 1776, David born 1778 and Elizabeth (Betty) born 1781.

During the Revolutionary War, David Owen was a Loyalist as were many men in each of the Colonies. However, he did not fight for King George II so he was permitted to remain at home. Again the new generation disagreed with the old, for John and Walter Owen joined the Virginia Militia and fought until Cornwallis' Surrender, October 19, 1781, brought victory for the United States.

After the Revolution, John Owen and his young wife, Nancy Martin, crossed the mountains into Kentucky by way of Cumberland Gap and Daniel Boone's Wilderness Road. Nancy Martin Owen died at the birth of her son, James Owen, 1783 (died 1862), before the young travelers were settled in the new Virginia County of Kentucky; and John Owen turned Eastward, crossed the mountains to Pittsburgh on the Ohio River and married a Quaker Maiden, Obedience Legend. With his new bride, John Owen returned to Kentucky to his land grant. Their children were James Johnson, Lucy, Elizabeth.

James Johnson Owen hated slavery. His attitude caused a break between him and his people and with his wife, Susannah Monroe (daughter of Johnson Monroe and Amelia Hooper Monroe). He migrated to Illinois in 1810. Their children were Johnson Monroe born 1811, John, Amelia, Nancy, James Legend, David, William Matthew, Obediah Hooper, Jefferson (named after Thomas Jefferson out of James Johnson Owen's respect for that President's - 1800-08 - anti-slavery ideas) and Elizabeth.

THE OWEN FAMILY

From a record of the Owen family collected by my mother, Nancy H. Anderson, and her cousin, Loretta Owen, I have made these copies for the descendants of today.

Ina Anderson Williams

David Owen, of English descent, came from Halifax County, Virginia, to Prewitts Knob, near Cave City in Barron County, Kentucky, to visit his daughter, Elizabeth--Joe Martin's wife--and died there. He was one hundred years old, and was buried at the foot of Prewitts Knob, where a vilage then was.

(Halifax County, Virginia is located near the middle southern part of Old Virginia. The southern boundary is North Carolina. Our Owen ancestors way back lived in Virginia and North Carolina, were decidedly English and slave owners.)

Descendants of David Owen (my great-great-great grandfather)

2 John (great-great grandfather to me)
5 Walter
7 James (spider-legged Jimmie)
1 William
3 Richard or Jessie
4 Joseph
8 David
6 Elizabeth (Betty, Joe Martin's wife)

(Elizabeth Owen, only daughter of David, married Joe Martin. Their daughter, Betsy Martin, married twice -- first, Henry Haley; second, William Dickey -- and their descendants are some of our Kentucky Kin.)

The records do not say in so many words, that John Owen married twice. But it does say in one place that John Owen married Nancy Martin, sister to Joe Martin who married Elizabeth Owen, only sister of John. (This wife, Nancy, must have died young, without children.

168.2 John Owen, who died at the age of ninety, married Obedience Legend.

Descendants of John Owen -

168.2.1 James (my great grandfather)
Johnson
Lucy (who married Nations)
Elizabeth (wife of Azariah Hatcher-a Baptist preacher, whose family lived in Barron County, Kentucky and whose descendants-Hatcher, Self, Owen are our Kentucky cousins.)

(Great grandfather James Owen hated slavery. His attitude caused a break between him and his people and he emigrated to Illinois)

James Owen, who died at the age of seventy-nine, married Susannah Monroe, daughter of Johnson Monroe and Amelia Hooper Monroe.

(Johnson Monroe Owen, my grandfather, had his father's feeling against slavery so firmly planted in his breast, that, although old enough to be exempt, he volunteered with his sons in the Civil War, was reported missing at Fort Donaldson, and never came back.)

Johnson Monroe Owen, son of James and Susannah Monroe Owen, was married to Mary Ann Potter, daughter of Daniel and Nancy Greathouse Potter by Jacob Lock. (Nancy Greathous Potter was the daughter of Lewis Potter and Betsy Hickinson.)

Grandmother Mary Ann Potter and her two brothers (one of them named Hiram) were left without parents at an early age and were brought under the exacting rule of a stern grandfather and step-grandmother, who was childless. Her mothering during those hard days came from an old slave, Old Black Mariah, who loved her devotedly. Her grandparents' harshness drove her from their home. She fled to her brother Hiram, who was then married, and stood between her and her grandfather when he tried to compel her to return home.

Descendants of Johnson Monroe and Mary Ann Potter Owen -

Daniel James (who I think died young)

William (best beloved of all the family) (He was twice married - first to Margaret McCracken; second to Mary Ann McCracken.)

Peter Crews (who was killed, if I am not mistaken, in the Civil War.)

Felix (who came back from War, married and finally went out to Washington territory. One son, Orra, is the only child from that unit. His second wife and her three daughters, Mamie, Ruth and Carrie, now live at Ajalune, Washington. Mamie is married and mother of at least two children.

Susannah (who married David Lewis) died young, leaving four children -- Ida; the twins, Frank and Charles; and Price.

Hiram Potter (died 1920) who married Jennie Duvall (died 1922) lived in Climax, Kansas. They have three living children - Anita (who married Polonzo Antius Bonapart Conduitt. Their childred, Marian Estella (who married F. S. Bennett and was shortly left a widow) lives in Dallas, Texas; Arthur Owen (Texas Jack) who lived in Florida; and Josephine Edith.

Hiram's ch.

Estella (who married Ellis Martin)

William (who married Edith Howard). They have two childred, Betty Maurice and Bonny Lou. They live in Ohio.

Nancy Haynes married Francis M. Anderson (died in 1877). They had three children - Ina (who married Walter H. Williams) died in 1925, Rosalie and Francis M. Jr. Her married home was on the banks of the Wabash. Later she lived in Carmi, Illinois, and her last days were spent in Los Angeles. She died in 1916.

Amelia Jefferson (Aunt Jeff) who married Luther Wilson. Her three childred - Amy Bell, Rosie and Ed, and both parents are long since dead. They lived at Gossett, Illinois.

Alexander (drowned in the Columbia River, Washington) was unmarried.

Albert (who married Emmer Hon) died in 1920. Their children -
